Base Ball.

The Paris Base Ball team returned from Shelbyville Wednesday night after playing two games there, winning one with score of 8 to 4, and losing one with score of 6 to 4. The ice however, is broken and we can look for better things. Fleming was the pitcher that stopped the "hoodoo" in the first game at Shelbyville. The second game there was pitched by Quinlin masterly style allowing only four hits to be made by these sluggers.
The game being lost in the eighth inning by errors. The features of the latter game were Quinlan's pitching and Scott's fielding at short for Paris.

The home team went to Lexington yesterday and the following tells the tale:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
Lexington	0	0	1	1	0	0	0	2	0	1-5
Paris	0	0	0	0	3	0	0	1	0	4

Hits, Paris 7, Lexington 7. Errors, Paris 5, Lexington 6.

NOTES.

Features of game, Scott's fielding and batting, Guinn's pitching.

Hannagan was there with his regular errors.

Elgin was partly responsible for the loss of the game.

Scott is the best find that the Paris team has run across.

Ochs, Scott, Barnett, Reed and Guinn were the players of yesterday's game.

Don't be discouraged boys, for we know there is class in our club—just get it out.

Bardo should be released on his record in the last few games, especially yesterday's.

Why not open negotiations with Otto Miller, catcher, late of Louisville Association team?

Lattimer was "rotten" behind the bat yesterday, being responsible for Lexington's first two runs.

Joe Varden says, "we can't expect to win all the games." Dr. Dudley says "its tough luck," and some one else says it was Han-a-gin."

The patrons of the game don't mind a player making an error occasionally but when the same player is regular with them the public gets sore.

We predict that before the game is two weeks older that Scott, the new Paris short stop, will be considered one of the very fastest men in the League.

The following suggestion is being handed around and seems a good one, viz: "If you are bound to keep Han-nagan put him in right field and the man Seelbach, that is coming, on second."

Old Man Grump, ("Jimmie" McGinley) was heard to remark as we were leaving the park yesterday in reply to a good-bye from a Lexington fan:
"Don't say good-bye to us Paris boys say come back again as we always leave what we got in Lexington and never take anything home.

Manager Elgin had an off day in the second game and made three errors on first. He had been playing a perfect game up to this. He acted the man however, and placed all the blame upon himself for the loss of the game.

Fleming recovered sufficiently from the tea shower of Sunday evening to pitch the Bourbonites to their first victory at Shelbyville Tuesday.

The Frankforts, who won the pennant last year, will be here for games today and tomorrow. The champions are a strong bunch, but the Bourbon-ites are beginning to play fast ball and Paris fans should not miss either of these games, for they will be corkers.

The "crack" Winchester team, who call themselves the "Hustlers" will be up with the Bourbonites Sunday afternoon, at League Park. It is said that five hundred Winchester fans will be here to see Sunday's game.

A large banner "Game Today" stretched from C. R. James' corner to Wills poolroom corner will always keep the public posted as to home games.

There will be a special train that will leave Cynthia Sunday at 2 p. m. for parties who desire to see the ball game, between Paris and Winchester in this city. The train will return at 6:30 after the game.

Ike Price, who ordered shirts in case lots expecting to keep the Bourbonites supplied in this wearing apparel, offering a shirt for each home run knocked on the home grounds, hasn't had any calls for the garments and is beginning to wonder what disposition he can make of his stock.

Scott, like another fellow of the same name, is showing considerable speed—not on a train, however—but on short. He is proving himself to be "the kid" with the stick.

Now that Barnett has shaved, it is quite likely that he feels much better and will no doubt be in the game with renewed energy.

PAYABLE IN ADVANCEIs There A Democratic Party?

(From Collier)

Is there a Democratic party? And if there is, who will set down the body of common principles behind which a majority of its members are willing to unite? On this page there has already been printed a list of twenty-three Democrats who broke away from their party and voted with the Republicans in the fight on the rules when the House was organized. There has been printed, also, a list of thirty-eight Democrats who voted for a tariff on lumber, although the Democratic national platform calls for free lumber.

Below is a printed list of twenty-nine Democrats who—the Republicans having put hides on the free list of the Payne bill—voted in favor of an amendment to put a duty of ten percent on hides. Together, these three groups make more than a majority of all the Democrats in Congress. Those who voted to put a duty on hides are:

From Texas: Morris Sheppard, of Texarkana, Martin Dies, of Beaumont, Choice Boswell Randall, of Sherman, Jack Beall, of Waxahachie, Rufus Hardy, of Corsicana, Alexander White Gregg, of Palestine, John Matthew Moore, of Richmond, George Farmer Burgess, of Gonzales, Robert Lee Henry, of Waco, John Hall Stevens, of Vernon, James L. Slayden, of San Antonio, John Nance Garner, of Uvalde, William Robert Smith, of Colorado, Albert Sidney Burleson, of Austin.

From Louisiana: Robert F. Broussard, of New Iberia, Arsene Paulin Pujot, of Lake Charles.

From Missouri: William Patterson Borland, of Kansas City, Courtney Walker Hamlin, of Springfield.

From Colorado: Edward Thomas Taylor, of Glenwood Springs, Atterson Walden Rucker, of Fort Logan, John A. Martin, of Pueblo.

From Alabama: George Washington Taylor, of Demopolis, John Lawson Burnett, of Gadsden.

From Indiana: William Elijah Cox, of Jasper, John A. M. Adair, of Portland.

From Nevada: George A. Bartlett, of Tonopah.

From Tennessee: George Washington Gordon, of Memphis.

From Georgia: William Gordon Brantley, of Brunswick.

From Illinois: James Thomas McDermott, of Chicago.

The position of a Democrat who has an industry in his own district that clamors for protection is difficult. When William Jennings Bryan was in Congress it was proposed to put a duty on beet sugar. This dialogue occurs in the Congressional Record for 1892: "Mr Perkins: Are you to be understood as opposed to a State or National protection to be extended to the beet sugar industry?"

"Mr. Bryan: I am, most assuredly. (Loud applause on the Democratic side.) And when it is necessary to come down to Congress and ask for a protection or a bounty for an industry in my own State, I shall cease to represent Nebraska in Congress. (Great applause on the Democratic side.)"

Champ Clark in the present Congress, has taken the same point of view. He was put in a difficult position by the demand, on the part of his constituents, for a tariff on zinc. Clark was outspoken:

"I want to repeat, and we might as well settle it and be through with it, I am not going to help any man plunder the American people because he happens to live in Missouri. I will go out of public life before I do it."

If Mr. Clark and Mr. Bryan are right, these twenty-nine Democrats who voted for a tariff on hides, and the thirty-eight who voted for a tariff on lumber, belong in another party. Senator Bailey, of Texas, has tried to straddle this situation by saying:

"It is not an abandonment of principles of the Democratic party for a Senator to insist that the same principles which apply to other constituencies shall likewise be applied to his. . . . That these principles shall be applied without discrimination does not signify that we are in favor of applying them."

What it all emphasizes is the extent to which the words "Democrat" and "Republican" have become meaningless. Maybe we shall in time change the party labels to "Conservative" and "Progressive"—with Aldrich, Cannon, and the sugar Democrats of Louisiana, "Fingy" Connors, Penrose, and the Tammany friends of the corporations lined up on one side, while Republicans like Murdock, Cooper, and Briscoe stand side by side with Democrats like Folk and Johnson of Minnesota.

Tax Wealth. Not Poverty.

Representing a State which has always prided itself upon its intelligence, Senator Lodge on Monday insisted in debate that as a rule the property of the country bears the burden of taxation, especially of State and local imposts. He cited Boston, with 110,000 voters and only 18,000 taxpayers.

How many of the 90,000 voters in that well informed community who pay no taxes directly are so dull as not to know that they do pay taxes indirectly? Every voter of Boston who pays rent on the taxed apartment where he keeps his taxed furniture and cats his taxed food, or who buys a taxed pair of boots in a taxed shop, or takes a taxed drink in a taxed saloon, is a taxpayer. The little girl in taxed clothing who buys taxed butter and eggs in a taxed store opposite her schoolhouse contributes heavily in proportion to the city, State and national burdens, and Mr. Lodge's constituents understand the fact.

We heavily tax consumption and the occupancy of homes, partly for public benefit and partly through prices raised by the tariff, for the benefit of production trusts. Consumption cannot escape taxation; and poor men are taxed through it far more in proportion than rich men. A graduated income tax is one of the fairest means known of balancing to some slight degree this disproportionate burden now laid upon the very poor and the industrious middle class.

It was against this modest first step toward the rectification of injustice that the Massachusetts Senator argued, "Do his constituents agree with him? or do they think that we should reduce the cost of living; tax wealth, not poverty?"

Cures Woman's Weaknesses.

We refer to that boon to weak, nervous, suffering women known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

Dr. John Fyfe one of the Editorial Staff of THE ECLECTIC MEDICAL REVIEW says of Unicorn root (Hemionus Dioica) which is one of the chief ingredients of the "Favorite Prescription":

"A remedy which invariably acts as a uterine invigorator. . . . makes for normal activity of the entire reproductive system." He continues "In Helonias we have a medicinal which more fully answers the above purposes than any other drug with which I am acquainted. In the treatment of diseases peculiar to women it is seldom that a case is seen which does not present some indication for this remedial agent." Dr. Fyfe further says: "The following are among the leading indications for Helonias (Unicorn root). Pain or aching in the back, with leucorrhoea; atonic (weak) condition of the reproductive organs of women; mental depression and irritability, associated with chronic diseases of the reproductive organs of women; constant sensation of heat in the region of the kidneys; menorrhagia (flooding), due to a weakened condition of the reproductive system; amenorrhoea (suppressed or absent monthly periods), arising from or accompanying an abnormal condition of the digestive organs and systemic (thin blood) habit; dragging sensations in the extreme lower part of the abdomen."

If more or less of the above symptoms are present, no invalid woman can do better than take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, one of the leading ingredients of which is Unicorn root, or Helonias, and the medical properties of which it most faithfully represents.

Of Golden Seal root, another prominent ingredient of "Favorite Prescription," Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bonnet Medical College, Chicago, says: "It is an important remedy in disorders of the womb. In all catarrhal conditions and general enfeeblement, it is useful."

Prof. John M. Seudder, M. D., late of Cincinnati, says of Golden Seal root: "In relation to its general effects on the system, there is no medicine in use about which there is such general unanimity of opinion. It is universally regarded as the tonic useful in all debilitated states."

Prof. R. Bartholow, M. D., of Jefferson Medical College, says of Golden Seal: "Valuable in uterine hemorrhage, menorrhagia (flooding) and congestive dysmenorrhoea (painful menstruation)."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription faithfully represents all the above named ingredients and cures the diseases for which they are recommended.

Progress Being Made.
Substantial progress was made in the consideration of the tariff bill, the amendments of the Committee on Finance being upheld by the Senate by substantial majorities. A feature of the day's session was a general discussion concerning the great disparity between wholesale and retail prices of commodities. Republican Senators declared that this difference was so great as to demonstrate that the duty levied by a protective tariff had a direct effect on the price paid by the consumer.

Attempted to Dynamite Negroes.
Negroes working in the rock quarries of the L. & N. Company at Benson Station, three miles West of Frankfort, are deserting their work as the result of the finding of a stick of dynamite at the doorway of one of the cavins Tuesday morning. A trail of fire to the explosive had been set, but burned itself out before reaching the explosive cap.

The matter was reported to Adjutant General Johnson by the manager of the quarries. He has taken the matter up with Governor Willson, who is in Louisville. Troops may be ordered out to guard the property of the company and to encourage the negroes to continue at work.

Favors Equal Rights.
Mrs. Desha Breckinridge, in speaking before the Equal Suffrage League at the free public library in Louisville Tuesday night, declared that America is a backward nation in not allowing women to vote, and declared that women are entitled to equal rights before the law. When asked if she did not think the negro women's vote would tend to corrupt the movement, she stated that the preponderance of vote that would be cast by intelligent white people would more than make up for the negro vote. The hall was packed during Mrs. Breckinridge's talk, which was considered the most logical and clearest effort upon the subject that has ever been made in Louisville.

Restored Sight on Anniversary.
Able to travel alone for the first time in a decade, William Dietrich, 85 years old, last surviving member of the orchestra which accompanied Henry Lind when she sang in Philadelphia in the fifties, Wednesday returned to his home from Philadelphia. For 10 years he was blind, but several weeks ago friends urged him to consult specialists. Operations was performed and Tuesday night, when the surgeons told him he might go home his joy knew no bounds. By a singular coincidence the day on which his sight was restored was the sixtieth anniversary of the day he landed in America.

Americans in Philippines.
There are 8,135 Americans now resident in the Philippines.

When Knights Were Bold.
When knights were clad in complete armor from top to toe it was essential that they should bear some sign by which their followers could distinguish them in battle, and this was the function of their armorial bearings. Knights who omitted to wear their own arms ran considerable risk, and it is related that at the battle of Ban-nockburn the last of the De Clares owed his death to his omission to wear his bearings. He was slain unrecognized, whereas had he been known he would have been held prisoner for the ransom or as a hostage.—Englishman.

Irregular Spellers.
Shakespeare and his contemporaries, not to speak of their predecessors, appear to have done their literary work without the aid of a dictionary, for in the Bookeller, in "Notes on Dictionaries," we read that the first English dictionary would seem to be that by Cockeram, published at London in 1622, when Shakespeare had been dead seven years. It was a small pocket volume and did not profess to contain all the words in the language. But Shakespeare had the biggest vocabulary on record and did not worry over the spelling of even his own name.

Laxative for Women Free

There is a great difference in the purposes to which a laxative should be put. Tablets and pills, salts, etc., are usually violent purgatives or cathartics, and altogether too powerful for the average person.

A woman at all times needs only a mild laxative—in fact, none other is needed by anyone, weak or strong though they may be, for the object is simply to move the bowels, and if a gentle laxative will do it, what is the use of a violent one?
Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin has earned a well-deserved vogue among women and children and old folks—people who must necessarily be careful of what they take.
It is a liquid laxative tonic and admittedly the greatest stomach, liver and bowel remedy before the American people.
The price is only 50 cents or $1 a bottle, as it comes in both sizes, and all druggists sell it. Its pleasant taste and gentle action make it an ideal remedy for women in constipation, torpid liver, sour stomach, sick headache, heartburn and such like digestive complaints. Its use for a short time will remove the trouble entirely so that future medication will be unnecessary. Its tonic properties build up the stomach and intestinal muscles so that they act naturally again. That this is so is the experience of many heads of families, like Mrs. Brannan, of Alvarado, Va., Mrs. K. L. Stout, of Louisville, Ky., and numerous others; in fact, way out in Williams, Conn., Mrs. J. E. Blackmore, of that place, writes, "the whole town seems to be using it."
If the remedy is new to you and you want to make a trial of it before buying, send your name to the doctor's address as below and a free test bottle will be sent you. Then, if results are satisfactory you can buy it of your druggist.

If there is anything about your ailment that you don't understand or if you want any medical advice, write to the doctor, and he will answer you fully. There is no charge for this service.
The address is Dr. W. B.
Caldwell, 500 Caldwell bldg., Monticello, Ill.

WINTER WOOD.
It Makes the Best and Most Lasting Kind of Timber.
It has long been known that winter was the best time of the year for cutting down trees for their timber, but until the American bureau of forestry published the results of some experiments no one was sure why. The bureau of forestry selected four pine trees of the same age and of equal vigor, growing in the same soil, and felled them, the first at the end of December, the second at the end of January, the third at the end of February and the fourth at the end of March. They were hewn into logs of the same size and dried at the same place. Then the logs were tested.
The December log resisted a flexile strain twice as strong as that which the March log resisted. It furnished piles which were still perfect and undecayed sixteen years later, while the piles made from the March log had rotted within three or four years.

Wood that is felled in December is less porous than that cut at other times. It has been proved that oak felled in the spring allowed water to percolate through it in from two to three hours, while similar wood cut in winter or in spring. The former contains floury particles, which turn blue when tincture of iodine is poured upon them. The latter preserves its natural tint or merely becomes a little darker at the contact of iodine.—New York World.

COPIED NAPOLEON.
South American Dictators Who Imitated the French Despot.

The Dictatorship of Castro in Venezuela has been compared with that of President Francia, who terrorized Paraguay for over thirty years. Francia was a worshiper of Napoleon, whom he endeavored to imitate in every possible way. He possessed only one portrait of his idol, a German caricature, which depicted the emperor wearing an exaggerated version of the famous gray overcoat. Francia took this picture seriously and for many years paraded the streets of Asuncion clad in a gray dressing gown and a cocked hat, which he fondly believed to be the habitual garb of the French despot.

Castro's most distinguished predecessor was also a Napoleon devotee, but Bolívar had seen his idol and could thus imitate him more faithfully. He managed to acquire the emperor's brusque speech and other mannerisms, pulled people's ears when in a good humor and dictated dispatches to several secretaries at once. He founded an order closely modeled on the Legion of Honor; surrounded himself with a guard of negroes from Haiti, after the style of Napoleon's mamelukes, and endeavored to codify the laws of his country. When he returned to America after witnessing Napoleon's coronation Bolívar entered Caracas standing in a Roman chariot drawn by twelve maidens belonging to the first families of the town.—London Chronicle.

A Narrow Escape.
When Mr. Hartman returned an hour later than usual, Mrs. Hartman asked him the reason, and his good natured face was solemn as he answered her.
"I had had one narrow escape from drowning, Katchen," he said.
"How was that happen?" asked his wife as she helped him unwind the knitted scarf from his neck. "Tell to me it at once, Hans."
"It was at the ferry that I came late," said Mr. Hartman, "from the blocked cars, and the boat she was just starting. A man he called me out, 'Joomp, joomp!' and for one moment I thought to make as he said.
But I reminded myself to be cautious and wait, and in one minute more, Katchen, came a great patch of water showing! Then I took hold of the post whereby I stood and said to myself, 'Hans, you were the wise man that you jumped not at first when that man advised.'—Youth's Companion.

Cracked Furniture.
Ugly marks caused by splits or cracked places in furniture are easily filled in with beeswax, and the mark is never detected. In fact, this is how furniture dealers cover such blemishes.
First slightly soften the beeswax until it is like putty, then press firmly into the cracks and smooth evenly with a thin knife. Sandpaper over the surrounding wood and work the dust into the beeswax. This gives a wood finish or color, and when the furniture is varnished you will look in vain for the blemishes. It is better than putty, since putty soon dries, crumbles and falls out, while beeswax will remain forever just where it is placed.

They Needed Prayers.
A member of parliament tells a good story of an out of the way country clergyman who did not keep up to date in what was going on in the world. One Sunday he asked his secretary: "Is the prayer for parliament to be used today? Is parliament still sitting?"
The sexton's reply came promptly.
"Well, sir, I don't know; but, anyhow, better pray for them, for they're a precious bad lot!"—London Standard.

Truthful.
He—Give me a kiss. She (decidedly) —I won't. He—You shouldn't say "I won't" to me; you should say, "I prefer not." She—But that wouldn't be true.

The greatest firmness is the greatest mercy.—Longfellow.

EGYPTIAN BARON
Is a black horse 15.2. A grand individual and one of the best representatives of the great Baron Wilkes, now known as the Futurity family. He is one of the fastest best headed horses in Kentucky, and has been a mile over my three-quarter track, which is at least three seconds slower than Lexington, in 2:09 1/4, last half in 1:03 1/4, last quarter in :30 1/2. Although a pacer, he was a natural and fast trotter, and could trot in 2:40 at 2 years old. Was headed race horse, and if he stays right, we predict a record of 2:05 or better this year. He has served a few mares, and his colts are good individuals and fast. Egyptian Baron will serve a few approved mares at

Resolution on Death of S. D. Corrington.

Again we are called to mourn by the death of one of our oldest and best beloved members, Bro. S. D. Corrington. Old not only in years but in Masonic service. Bro. Corrington was initiated as an Entered Apprentice, Aug. 29, 1863, passed to a Fellow Craft Sept. 28, 1863, and raised to a Master Mason, Oct. 31, 1863, Zerubbabel Lodge No. 119, Aaron's Run, Montgomery county, Ky., admitted a member of Paris Lodge No. 2, by demit Jan. 6, 1888. Mark Master, Jan. 9, 1891, seated as a Past Master, March 13, 1891, received and acknowledged as a most Excellent Master, May 8, 1891, and exalted to a Royal Arch Mason, June 12, 1891, in Paris Chapter No. 15, Royal Arch Masons, Paris, Ky. Dubbed and created a companion of the Order of the Red Cross, August 18, 1891, dubbed and created a Knight Templar and Knight of Malta, Oct. 13, 1891, in Coeur de Lion Commandery, No. 26, Knights Templar, Paris, Ky. Served as Tyler and Sentinel for all the three bodies of which he was a member, Blue Lodge, Chapter and Commandery, for a great many years.

Bro. Corrington was born Nov. 23, 1834 in Montgomery county, Ky. Died of Bright's disease, April 25, 1909, at the Old Mason's Home near Shelbyville, Ky.

Resolved: 1st. That in the death of our brother the lodge has lost one of its most valued members, his family a loving one and true relative, the community a good citizen and a moral and just man, also a good Christian.

Resolved: 2nd. That a copy of these resolutions be spread on the minutes of the lodge, published in our city paper, and a copy sent to his family, and that the lodge room be draped and the members wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days.

J. A. STEWART,

Breach of Promise Suit.

Through her attorneys, Col. T. J. Ewing and John B. Williams, Mrs. Nella B. Tolliver, aged 21, has filed suit in the 30th Circuit Court for $50,000 against the Hon. Chas. E. Kitchen, aged 65, reputed millionaire and prominent Democratic politician of Ashland. Breach of marriage contract is alleged in the petition, the plaintiff declaring that three times she has prepared to marry the defendant upon three separate dates agreed to by them. Owing to the prominence of the defendant the case will attract wide attention. The couple have gone together as sweethearts for a year and a half longer. They were standing together talking in front of the plaintiff's residence when Deputy Sheriff J. C. Hopkins served the process upon Mr. Kitchen.

Kentucky Dog Tax.

According to the report of State Auditor Frank P. James, the total tax collected on dogs in 1907 was $149,907.15, and $106,164.75 was paid into the school fund, after paying for sheep that had been killed by dogs to amount of $43,742.20. The total number of dogs assessed in 1907 was 188,985. This year it is estimated the dog tax will be $121,646.59 and the sheep claims paid will be about $34,034.85.

MATRIMONIAL.

The engagement is announced of Miss Olive Fant, of Flemingsburg, to Henry M. Bosworth, of Lexington, formerly State Treasurer and Sheriff of Fayette county. The marriage will be celebrated June 3.

Will He Become a Bolter?

Friends of Circuit Judge Watts Parker, of Lexington, who was a candidate for renomination, but withdrew on the eve of the recent Democratic primary, along with other candidates, have put in circulation in every precinct of the city of Lexington and Fayette county petitions calling upon him to head as a candidate for Circuit Judge, an independent ticket at the regular election this fall. Judge Parker has not yet given any expression as to whether he will run or not.

Twenty Men Killed.

Twenty men were killed by a premature blast of dynamite Wednesday afternoon in a stone quarry operated by the Callahan Road Improvement Company near the village of South Bethlehem, eleven miles southwest of Albany, N. Y.

The Paris Grand.

It is not often that vaudeville goes to an opportunity to hear real operatic singers and lovers of this class of melody who patronized the Grand the first half of the week received a rare treat. Mme. Alvano and company had excellent voices and handled them well, rendering several high class numbers.

Eddie Warren, the eccentric comedian, whose make-up was good, and with a line of talk out of the ordinary and several original and catchy songs was productive of many hearty laughs. These with an illustrated song by Miss Lovely and two motion pictures, completed a very pleasing program and one well worth seeing.

Last night there was an entire change of program composed of Downard and Downard in their laughable sketch "Bracing Up." This little playlet is a howl from start to finish. Mr. Downard greatly amused the audience by making a change from white to black-face in full view.

The Great La Varre and his charming wife in the "Place of Mysteries," occupied twenty minutes that were full of interest. La Varre introduced several feats of legerdemain that were originated by himself, which are exceedingly clever. Undoubtedly his best mysticism is the act in which he produces a lady apparently from nowhere, which is very difficult to see through. We have had many magicians but none in a class with La Varre, who with elaborate stage apparatus and great skill proves to be the best magician ever seen here.

An illustrated song by Miss Lovely and two clever motion pictures, one of them "Julius Caesar," a highly colored film, presenting the well known historical tragedy, proved one of the best of the good performances that have been the offering of the new management.

DEATHS.

—Mr. James Samuel Ecklar, aged 68 years died Saturday of paralysis at his home in Harrison county. He was the father of Mr. N. H. Ecklar, of this city.

—Miss Mayme Smith, aged 22 years, died in Cincinnati Wednesday morning of tuberculosis. She was the daughter of the late Simon Smith, of Shawhan, this county. Burial services were held yesterday morning from the L. & N. 9 o'clock train at Shawhan. Interment in Riddles Mills cemetery.

—Miss Emma Scott died yesterday morning about 6 o'clock, at St. Joseph Hospital, Lexington, after several months of illness. Miss Scott underwent a severe operation several weeks ago in hopes that her health might be improved. She rallied from the effects of the operation, but there has been little hope of her recovery.

She was the daughter of the late Mr. James Scott, of North Middletown neighborhood, and was loved and admired by a host of friends throughout this county. She was a consistent member of the Christian church and possessed all the beautiful traits of character that makes the lovely Christian woman. She had been a great sufferer and was ready to go, perfectly resigned and without any complaint she passed into the eternal sleep.

She is survived by one sister, Mrs. Hugh Montgomery, and one brother, Mr. W. R. Scott, both of this city.

Her remains were brought to the residence of Mrs. Hugh Montgomery yesterday afternoon, where the funeral will be held on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Elder Carey E. Morgan, the pastor, officiating.

—Bishop Charles Betts Galloway is dead. He was Mississippi's most eminent divine. For twenty years he has ranked as one of the leaders in the Methodist Episcopal church and one of the greatest pulpit orators in America. He passed away at 5 o'clock Wednesday morning, after an illness of several days with a mild form of pneumonia complicated with heart trouble. He was in his sixtieth year.

RELIGIOUS.

—Usual services will be held at the Second Presbyterian church Sunday morning, with the pastor, Rev. Dr. B. M. Shive in the pulpit.

—Rev. Father James DeBruyn sailed yesterday on the Celtic from New York for Belgium, his old home. Rev. Father Lawrence Alp, of Bavaria, Germany, who is only five weeks in this country, is the acting pastor of the Paris church in Father DeBruyn's absence.

—The Paris Methodist church will observe Sunday, June 20, as "Methodist Day." It is desired that every Methodist attend the Methodist church on that day. A census will be taken on that occasion of all resident Methodists and every member of the denomination is asked to aid in the count by attending church.

—We notice in a Camden, N. J., paper that the trustees of the Westminster Presbyterian church, of that city, were to hold a meeting to take steps to enlarge the church building so as to accommodate the increased attendance. Rev. Dr. Joseph S. Malone, formerly of the First Presbyterian church of this city, has been pastor of the Westminster church since January 1, and the increased attendance at his church in this short time he has been there speaks volumes for this good man and excellent preacher.

STOCK, CROP AND FARM NOTES.

—Hugh McClanahan, of Mason county bought last week forty yearling Texas mules for which he paid $5,000.

—Cronbach Bros., of Mt. Vernon, Ind., have sold their large corn crop of 15,000 bushels to a Henderson, Ky., firm. The price paid was 73½ cents per bushel.

—Anderson & Spilman, of Boyle county, have purchased 100,000 bushels of growing wheat at $1.00 per bushel, to be paid for as it comes from the thrasher.

—With lambs selling at $6 and many ewes with twins, thus worth $12, and the fleece at $1.30, makes sheep a good investment, to say nothing of the resultant soil benefit, from the flock.

—J. C. Robinson, of Boyle county, sold his crop of 55,000 pounds of hemp to E. F. Spears & Sons, of this city, at $5.25 per hundred pounds straight. The total crop brought an aggregate of about $3,000.

—Chas. E. Butler has bought the 4-year-old-mare, Princess Denmark by Blue Chester, dam by Fayette Denmark, for $300. The mare will be mated to Bourbon King. Mr. Butler sold for $125 Bettie Davis, a registered Jersey cow, to Frank White, and eleven head of Jersey heifers to Lee R. Craven for $40 per head.

—According to authentic reports the largest apple tree in this section of the State, if not in the world at large, is still growing on the farm of Mrs. Martha E. Stone, on the Falls of Rough Run, two and a half miles this side of Litchfield. The tree trunk was recently found by actual measurement to be eleven feet two inches in circumference. —Hopkinsville Independent.

—If there was ever a time in the history of farming in Kentucky that the farmers should not be kicking it is at present, for a careful survey of the situation and a study of the conditions show that the products for the farm ranging from an egg to a big fat steer, are higher this year than ever before when taken on the average.

—At Louisville last Saturday six horses won six races and in each event the winner made the fastest time ever recorded over Churchill Downs, a feat never before equalled on any racetrack since racing began over 150 years ago. Miami's time in the Clark Handicap was 1:45 1-5 and the best previous record for that race was 1:45 4-5, made by the Minks in 1908.

—The returns to the department at Washington show that there are now 56,084,000 head of sheep in the United States, and the value to be an average of $3.38 per head. In 1903 the average value per head was $2.63. The Western Mountain and Pacific States now have 34,274,000 head of sheep while the balance are in the Central States.

—Another industry for spinsters is to be provided by the raising of a large sum of money to buy small farms near large cities where there is a good market and sell them to the spinsters on easy terms. Not being able to provide the spinsters with husbands, the philanthropists will provide them with farms. The farms are not so much trouble as the husbands and although they stay out all night, they never get drunk.

More Mutineers Hung.

Twenty-four more mutineers, who had been tried by court-martial, were publicly hanged in Constantinople. This is a total of 38 executions since the revolution of April 3.

Mrs. Woods Granted Divorce.

In the Fayette Circuit Court Tuesday, Mrs. Mattie C. Woods was granted a divorce from her husband, Clarence C. Woods, Mayor of Richmond, Ky. Mrs. Woods has lived in Lexington for several years. The Woods have one child, a daughter, Mamie Miller Woods, about nine years old, who was named for Mayor Woods' first wife. In directing the clerk to enter an order granting the divorce Judge Parker said: "I am somewhat at a loss to know just what disposition to make of the daughter of the two parties in this suit. I don't believe any man is a suitable person to bring up a girl child. I am satisfied from the evidence in the case that the mother would, if given possession of the child, do the very best she could do for her, but I fear that she is mentally unbalanced."

Attorney Richard Bush, representing the defendant, stated that he thought an agreement could easily be reached between himself and George R. Ross, attorney for the plaintiff, as to the disposition of the child acceptable to both the defendant and the plaintiff.

Choked into Unconsciousness.

Miss Mary Cochran, daughter of Rev. W. O. Cochran, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Georgetown, was attacked by a negro late Tuesday afternoon in her home. The negro climbed through a window and choked the girl by the throat. He choked her into unconsciousness, then fled. The girl was found by her parents. A physician had great difficulty in reviving her. Burglary is believed to have been the negro's motive. A posse is in pursuit of him.

Neighbors Fight.

In Clark county, R. H. Curtis shot and probably mortally wounded Will R. Locknane about 5:30 o'clock Wednesday evening. The shooting occurred on the Ruckerville pike, about five miles from Winchester. The two men are neighbors and it is said that the shooting grew out of an old grudge which has existed between the two for about a year, and which started over a law suit, in which Curtis testified against Locknane.

LATER.

W. R. Lockland, of near Winchester, who was shot in the abdomen and hip by R. H. Curtis of the same neighborhood Wednesday evening and taken to the Good Samaritan Hospital in Lexington, where he bullet in the abdomen was removed Wednesday night, died yesterday at 12:30 o'clock. His wife was with him when he died.

A Musical Treat.

The people of Paris will have the opportunity on next Tuesday evening, May 18th of hearing one of the most gifted pipe organists in the country. Henry B. Vincent, of Erie, Pa., on that date will give a musical at the Second Presbyterian church. He will be assisted by the excellent choir of this church, and in all it will be a musical treat long to be remembered by the music loving people of this community. During the summer months Mr. Vincent plays the $40,000 pipe organ at Chautauqua, N. Y., and the visitors from here to that place every year can testify as to his ability. Price of admission will be fifty cents.

The ladies of this church were fortunate to get Mr. Vincent to visit Paris.

The Spirit of Improvement.

The spirit of improvement seems to be in the air. The paint brush and the whitewash brush are busy every day and results are most satisfactory to the eye. There seems to be a sort of general cleaning up going on over town. For this we have many reasons to be thankful. May it not stop until it has swept over the entire community.

CITY OF THE INSANE.

Happy and Ignored "Guests" of the Inhabitants of Gheel.

One of the most remarkable places in Europe, of which no tourist on pleasure bent ever takes notice, says a writer in a Berlin paper, is the "City of the Insane," by which name Gheel, near Antwerp, has been known for generations. About 1,500 men and women afflicted with insanity in all its forms live there and have a happy being as the "guests" of the inhabitants, who know by experience how to treat the unfortunate ones. In the streets, in the places of amusement, the cafes and workshops these patients may be found, and nowhere is there the remote suggestion of restraint apparent. The board ranges from 240 to 2,400 marks a year, and no matter how small the amount may be, the patient is always the favored member of the family. He has the first right to the most comfortable chair, and the head of the table belongs to him. He receives the most attention, and this he learns to appreciate and to endeavor to maintain by living down his illness. Even the children know how to treat the demented people. The dangerous ones are sent to another settlement and to institutions. It is wonderful how considerate, careful and kind the simple people are toward their charges, and a peep into the community would probably terrify physicians who had never heard of and could not appreciate the good which is being done in this "City of the Insane."

A RACE ON ICE.

The Skates That Got Away and Those That Were Recovered.

Thackeray once asked one of the men who let out skates on the Serpentine whether he had ever lost a pair through the omission to exact a deposit, and he replied that he had never done so, except on one occasion, when the circumstances made it almost pardonable.

A well dressed young fellow was having his second skate fastened on when he suddenly broke away from the man's hands and dashed to the ice.
The next instant a thickset, powerful man was clanking for another pair.

He was a detective in pursuit of his prey, and a very animating sight it was to watch the chase. He was, as he had boasted, a first rate skater, and it became presently obvious that he was running down his man.

Then the young fellow determined to run a desperate risk of liberty. The ice, as usual, under the bridge was marked "Dangerous," and he made for it at headlong speed. The ice bent beneath his weight, but he got safely through.

The sheriff's officer followed with equal pluck, but, being a heavier man, broke through and was drowned.
"His skates," said the narrator of the incident, "I got back after the inquest, but these the young gentleman had on I never saw again."—London Telegraph.

The Salt Sea Legend.

There is a legend in the Norse scalds which explains why the sea is salt.
The "bountiful Frodi," whose mythical reign was a golden age indeed, possessed a quern, or hand mill, which ground out gold and peace, but which would grind out stores of anything desired by its owner. Two giant maid-ens, ruled over by Frodi, were the grinders. In an evil day a sea rover came upon the scene, slew Frodi and carried off the quern and the two giant maidens who worked it. When the sea rover's vessel was right out at sea he ordered the maidens to grind salt. At midnight they asked if they had not ground enough. The sea rover, angry at being awakened from his sleep, commanded them to grind until morning. Now, the giant maid-ens naturally enough worked very quickly, so as they went on grinding the load of salt grew so heavy that it sank the ship, and now the sea will continue salt forever.

Looked Too Far.

There was an English farmer, a Somersetshire man, who once owned a telescope. The old man remarked to a friend at a local race meeting that the gentry nowadays had glasses for both eyes and added that he "had had one once for one eye, a right good one it was, but now it was no use at all—no, not to nobody."

"Why not?" asked the friend.
"Well," he said, "it were a good one.
I could see miles w' en. I could see plain the steeple of the church five miles off. But missus' son John, he borrowed en, and he tried to see the steeple of t'other church, ten miles off—and tried and tried and couldn't.
And that strained it, and it were never of no use any more—no, not to nobody."

A Troublesome Mirror.

"Mamma," said Flossie, "this old looking glass isn't any good."
"Why, what's the matter with it, dear?" asked her mother.
"Every time I try to look in it," explained Flossie, "my face gets in the way."

As a Corollary.

"Are marriages made in heaven?"
"As to that I can't say, but I do know this much."
"What's that, Peleg?"
"There's lots of courting done in church."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Didn't Get a Chance.

She—What did papa say when you asked him for my hand?
He—Why, he couldn't say a word.
"He couldn't?"
"No; your mother was there!"—Yonkers Statesman.

W.B. Reduso CORSETS

The Perfect Corset for Large Women

It places over-developed women on the same basis as their slender sisters. It tapers off the bust, flattens the abdomen, and absolutely reduces the hips from 1 to 5 inches. Not a harness—not a cumbersome affair, no torturing straps, but the most scientific example of corsetry, boned in such a manner as to give the wearer absolute freedom of movement.

New W. B. Reduso No. 770 for large tall women. Made of white coutil. Hose supporters front and sides, also made in batiste. Sizes 20 to 30. Price $3.00.

New W. B. Reduso No. 772 for large short women, is the same as No. 770, except that the bust is somewhat lower all around. Made of white coutil. Hose supporters front and sides. Also made in batiste. Sizes 20 to 30. Price $3.00.

Ask any dealer anywhere to show you the New W. B. "Hip-subsiding" models from $1.00 to $3.00 per pair.

WEINGARTEN BROS., Mfrs., 377-379 BROADWAY, NEW YORK

Fruit All Right,

H. F. Hillenmeyer, the well known Lexington nurseryman, has given out the following statement regarding the fruit crop:

"Last year, on the morning of May 1, the Kentucky fruit crop went a-glimmering. On May 21, 1863, the destruction was even more complete. This prophet looks into the future, dimly remembering the past.

"It may be said, however, that the severe frost of the eighth and tenth of April did no serious harm. The fully expanded blossoms were pretty closely nipped, but things were not in full bloom, and there is yet promise of a nice yield. Elberta, Heath and early bloomers, and those that bloom all in a lump are in a bad way. The pear is a maiden that easily shivers in the cold, and will some philosopher now arise and say why the fully expanded flowers of the entire Japan section never winced? The plentitude of the Keffler will fill the earth with its abundance, for the expanded foliage is the mantle of fullest protection.

"I don't like to say it, but the apple crop will be slim. The trees are not well set with flower buds. On good ground, on young trees, in places where the roots could gather moisture there may be a fair crop but only on such and in such places.

"Strawberries languished all the fall and how can a starving lion be filled with vigor? This is true of the bush fruits and brambles generally."

Young Girls are Victims.

of headache, as well as older women, but all get quick relief and prompt cure from Dr. King's New Life Pills, the world's best remedy for sick and nervous headaches. They make pure blood, and strong nerves and build up your health. Try them. 25c at Oberdorfer's.

Conscience Smitten.

Nearly twenty years ago a gentleman of this city was working in a neighboring town and in the same establishment another young man, his friend and chum, was also employed. They frequently made bets on base ball games and horse races, and the bets were promptly paid, by one or the other. Saturday the gentleman in this city received a letter from his old friend, who now resides in California, enclosing a check for fifteen dollars. The writer stated that in his youthful days he had won this money as wagers from the Winchester man, and that now as he had been converted his conscience would not be at rest until he returned the money. Naturally the letter and check came as a pleasant surprise to the Winchester man, who had forgotten the matter years ago.

Kills Her Foe of 20 Years.

"The most merciless enemy I had for twenty years," declares Mrs. James Duncan, of Haynesville, Me., "was dyspepsia. I suffered intensely after eating and drinking and could scarcely sleep. After many remedies had failed and several doctors gave me up. I tried Electric Bitters, which cured me completely. Now I can eat anything. I am 70 years old and am overjoyed to get my health and strength back again." For indigestion, loss of appetite, kidney trouble, lame back, female complaints, it is unequalled. Only 50c at Oberdorfer's.

The Melancholy Days.

The melancholy days have come—the saddest of the year the carpets on the clothes line and incessant whacks we hear. The beddings in the kitchen and the beds are in the hall, the pictures are upon the floor while some one dusts the wall. The melancholy days are here—the days of soap and brush. Stov. polish daubs the silverware (there's pie on Shakespeare's bust,) piano holds some frying pans—the bathtub's lined with books—the women folks, oh! who could tell who they were by their looks. Sing hey! The glad house cleaning time of dust and soap. It is a glad some sight to see—t rough a big telescope.

Forced into Exile.

Wm. Upchurch, of Glen Oak, Okla., was an exile from home. Mountain air, he thought, would cure a frightful lung racking cough that had defied all remedies for two years. After six months he returned, death dogging his steps. "Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery," he writes, "and after taking six bottles I am as well as ever." It saves thousands yearly from desperate lung diseases. Infallible for coughs and colds! It dispels hoarseness and sore throat. Cures grip, Bronchitis, hemorrhages, asthma, croup, whooping cough. 50c and $1.00, trial bottle free, guaranteed by Oberdorfer.

Chester Park.

Uses of Romance.
I believe with all my soul in romance; that is, in a certain high-hearted, eager dealing with life. I think that one ought to expect to find things beautiful and people interesting, not to take delight in detecting mean-nesses and failures.—Benson.

Self-Deception.
Bacon: Every one's reason is his private way of deceiving himself.

Longest Coast Line.
Great Britain has the longest coast line of any of the countries of Europe.

The Woman Who Works.
The woman who works is inevitably a woman who is broad in her views. Her opinions are not riveted to any one spot. Her viewpoint is movable. Her experience in the business mart gives her sympathy for other woman workers. She has learned to accept every friend, new and old, at an honest valuation. She learns to enjoy the society of people who have made something out of life.—Exchange.

Introspection Not for All.
Solitude can be delightful only to the innocent.—Leszczynski.

Luck and the Gambler.
Luck is another name for superstition. The whole betting mania is based on pure superstitious belief in a blind chance that will somehow turn and help a fellow out some time. And that's why the innocent victims keep coming in a never-ending stream, begging to be shorn. And verily, they are not disappointed.

Decision Without Judgment.
The reason a woman always makes a much better decision than a man is she never does it on judgment.—New York Press.

Howe's Great London Circus.

The clowning part of a circus program is not understood by the outsider. There are many times during the show when there is not a clown in sight, and then in the next instant the hippodrome tack will almost swarm with them. They seem to spring from the ground, and they will disappear as quickly.

The presence of the clown is appropriate and is desired with most circus acts, and again there are some features which would be ruined if they were allowed to be clownish. Clowning is a fine art. The best clowns are born, not made.

When intermingling with citizens on the streets they would not be suspected of being wearers of the loose robe of a fool, but when they appear in the circus rings with their make-ups on they laugh and the crowds laugh with them. They help to unload, temporarily, at least, the cares from the minds of thousands of people. These men who appear so dignified and quiet upon the streets and out of the circus ring would never be picked out as being clowns on the road, but they are.

The work of the clowns with the Howe's London Show is not the same day after day, as they take delight in springing new jokes and new tricks upon their co-workers, which entertains the members of the troupe as well as the audience. Howe's show will be here on Monday, May 24.
